Greetings from the Baron and Baroness of Rising Waters,

Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays

Baronial Birthday Bash was a fantastic celebration of our past and present Barony. We were so happy to see so many people out to celebrate our Barony. The laughter and conversations filled the hall, some tears shed in memory of those so dear to us now lost to the pages of history. Our deepest and heartfelt thanks to all those involved in the day. Wassail!

We want to wish each of you a happy, healthy and safe holiday. We look forward to seeing you all in the new year. Plans are underway for Lady Mary in the Spring, please send award recommendations to us as soon as possible. The Baronial Thrones are getting some work done on them over the holidays, we are looking forward to showing them off at Lady Mary. Have a great New Years!

Greetings from the Baronial Signet,

The Rising Waters scribal community is quite fortunate, as Her Majesty, Queen Marioun hosted a Scriptorium at our recent 30th anniversary Baronial Birthday Bash. I was delighted to find that our very own Baron Richard Larmer was one of the participants, along with lady Lexa Heddon. Both are new to illumination, and show great promise as illuminators - wassail!

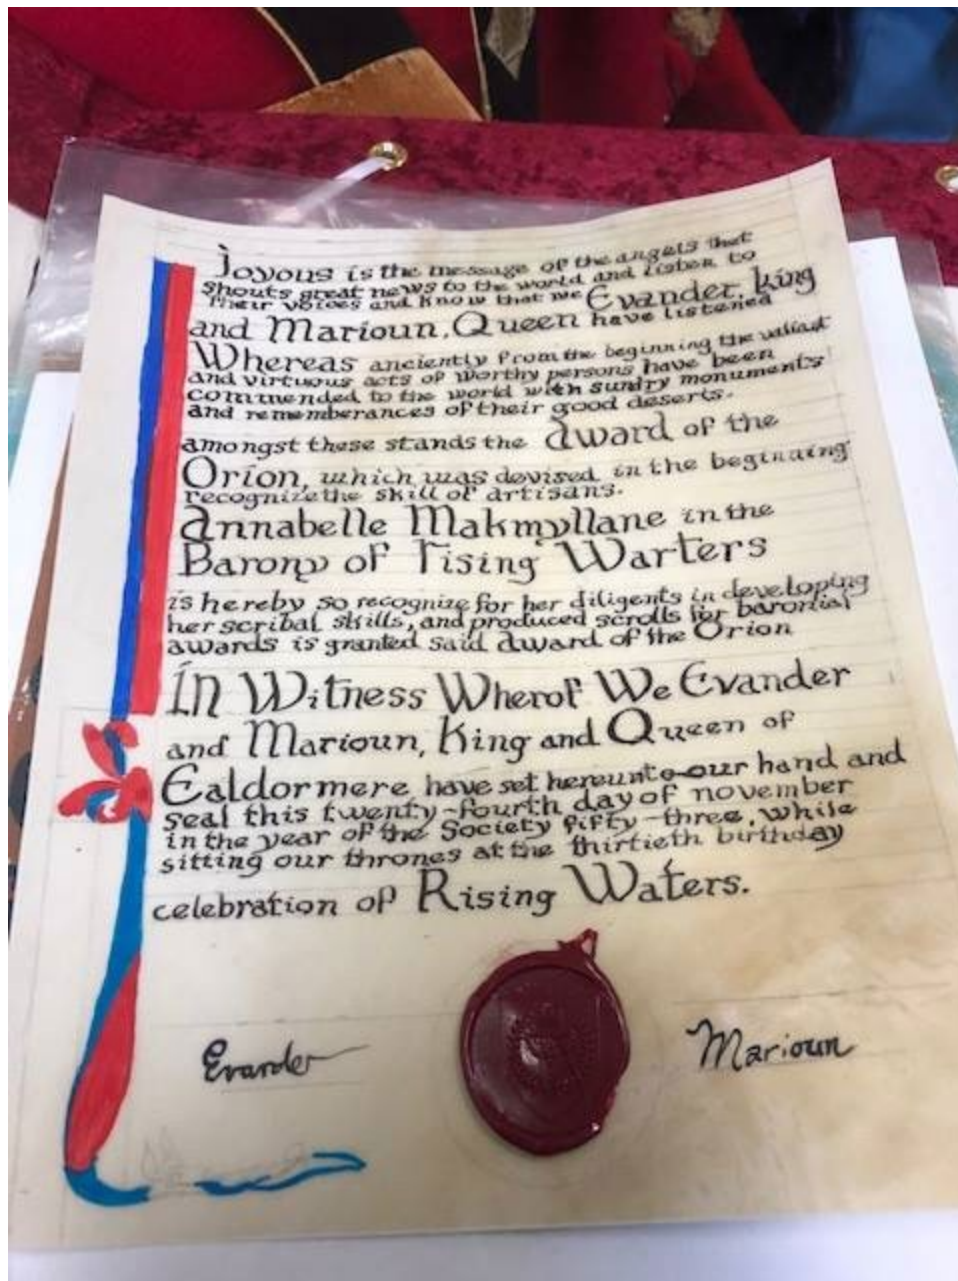

Our next scribal gathering will be at the Crumphold (that's our place) on Thursday, January 17th at 7:30pm - 9pm.

The scribal community in Rising Waters has produced two scrolls for recent kingdom events, and we were gifted-back the scroll cases that tend to go along with them. If you have questions about scroll-work, or the scribal arts, please let me know at signet.risingwaters@gmail.com

YIS,

Sciath

Baronial Signet, Rising Waters

The scroll Mistress Aibhilin completed for Baroness Annabelle's Award of the Orion, granted at BBB on Nov. 17th. Illumination is based on a manuscript in the style of William de Brailes, at Oxford, England, 13th century.

The scroll created for Rubeus le Blont d'Argent's Award of Arms, granted at QPT on Nov. 10th. Illumination by Lady Rohaise de Guildford, Calligraphy and wording by Sciath. Wording based on: Martial Authenticity -Based on a French Grant of Arms, 1389.
