Baronial Officers' Meeting Minutes May 16, 2021

Officer's Report

Baroness' Report (Sciath/Trudi)

- Attended and participated in Making MAYham. I was happy to judge the 'head' category with Magistra Nika, and we were treated to many interesting illustrations of heads (don't worry, it was portraiture, and included a cat head). Congratulations to the winners of Loud and Cats Rising Waters sponsored their prizes: the prize for Loud was donated by Magistra Nika (and is well on its way to Meistro Albrecht), and Rivka has been awarded the prize for Cats (I will coordinated the transportation with Bera, who has donated this prize).
- Lady Mary thoroughly enjoyed the event, thank you to everyone for their hard work. I'd like to welcome Gelleia as our A&S Champion, and Baron Valdr as our Bardic Champion and Keeper of Tales. More to be reported in Old Business.
- The 1st Bardic War currently participating as a moderator, livestreamer, and participant in two events (Writer-Scribal-Herald Relay, and Persona Development). I'd like to recognize Magistra Nika, who recently performed in the Improv competition (yesterday), and is competing in a second Writer-Scribal-Herald Relay! This event has many live performances, classes, and competitions all of which are available for people to participate in, or watch. https://www.bardicwar.com
- Fruits of Our Labour This event takes place on May 22 and 23 (next weekend). This is one of my favourite events, and this year I am facilitating two roundtables (moneyer guild's and newcomers' roundtables).
- As more of us become vaccinated, I look forward to real conversations about our next event. Virtually, I am looking forward to the Sparkly and Shiny: A Metal and Glass Althyng (June5), the Tri-Kingdom University Tournament (June 12), Known World Science Symposium (June 12), Known World Theatre Arts Symposium (June 27), and the Known World Heraldic and Scribal Symposium (July 9)

Winners of the beginner challenges went to Anne Parkhill for her Red Pillar blank and Ragnheiðr won for the Golden Dragon blank.

New Business

Zoom:

Our 1 year subscription will be up at the end of July so we will need to decide if we would like to keep it for another year.

It will be $200 - I can use the Chronicler $50 (since that doesn't get used currently) and after paying for the domain for the year (which is $20) I can put the rest of the Webminister budget that way. So $80 of that would be covered already.

Proven it's value to us. Outside those budgets, voted to do this again.

Financial Policy change:

The wording was a vote by every paid member in the Barony, we need to change that to every paid member at the meeting.

If anyone want to read the financial polity you can find it here:

Next meeting: Sunday, June 27, 2021 - all are Welcome!
